"Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God..." (1 Corinthians 1:1)

Oblate School of Theology joins the universal Church in celebrating the 2000 year anniversary of St. Paul in this year of jubilee (June, 2008-June, 2009) proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI.

Oblate's Continuing Education Scripture study days this Fall will be devoted to Paul and the rich heritage he has given us through his life, ministry, and his letters that are preserved in the New Testament.

Each evening will focus on a different aspect of Paul's work and life. We will:

- recall Paul's life and mission
- engage in an overview of his letters
- study and reflect on Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

In this letter, we will watch Paul deal with various pastoral situations and challenges in the Corinthian community not unlike the situations we face in our contemporary Church. Paul's passionate desire and work for unity inspire us to be about the ministry of reconciliation and building of community in the Church today. Truly he speaks across two millennia!

In her 20+ years of instructing on the graduate and doctoral levels, it has been important to Sarah to teach in settings where students not only acquire a firm and responsible academic foundation in biblical studies but also discover a love for the Word of God that will enrich their spiritual and ministerial lives as well as the lives of those with whom they minister.
