Rev. Ron Rolheiser, OMI, is a Roman Catholic priest and member of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. He is president of Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, TX. He is an internationally known author, retreat leader, speaker and community builder. He writes a weekly column that is carried in over 70 newspapers around the world. He is the author of many books, with over ten currently in print. His writings have great appeal to those who are reflective of their own spiritual journey. His teaching is offered with simple clarity, excellent exegesis, and many literary and cultural references that often provide the learner with lasting insights.
Living with Less Fear In Our Lives: Trusting in a Wise, Prodigal, and Fully Empathic God

Most of us live with too many fears in our lives. And all of us live with religious fears, fears about God, about life, and about our eternal destiny.

- What kind of fear is healthy in our lives and what kind is unhealthy?
- From where do our religious fears originate?
- How do we tell healthy fears from unhealthy ones?

This retreat will examine the origins and the complexities of religious fear and, after giving fear its proper due, will examine some biblical principles which invite us to live with less fear.

Come enjoy some quiet time in south Texas at the newly renovated Oblate Renewal Center. The center features
- a welcoming retreat setting with tranquil grounds for quiet walks and contemplation.
- healthy, delicious meals prepared by our award-winning professional culinary team.
