

CHRIST AND OTHER RELIGIONS

HOW MIGHT A CHRISTIAN VIEW THE GREAT RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD?

Fr. Ron Rolheiser, O.M.I.
February 6, 13, & 20, 2012
7:00 - 9:00 PM
Oblate School of Theology
Oblate Renewal Center
Registration Fee: $30
Student Fee: $15

Jesus told us that he is the only way to salvation. Where does that leave non-Christians? How can they come to salvation? Are they excluded from heaven? Does God have some other plan for them? Or, are there deeper parts of the mystery of Christ that we have yet to learn? Does it perhaps take all the religions of the world to give full-expression to the full-Christ? These lectures will try to interface Christ with the great religions of the world.

RON ROLHEISER, OMI, a Roman Catholic priest and member of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate, is president of the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas. He is a specialist in the fields of spirituality and systematic theology.

He is a community builder, lecturer, and writer. He is the author of THE HOLY LONGING, which has sold more than 100,000 copies, FORGOTTEN AMONG THE LILIES, THE SHATTERED LANTERN, SECULARITY AND THE GOSPEL, and OUR ONE GREAT ACT OF FIDELITY. His books are popular throughout the English-speaking world and his weekly column is carried by more than fifty newspapers worldwide. For most of the 28 years of his priesthood, he taught philosophy at Newman Theological College in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. He remains an adjunct faculty member at Seattle University.
